LIDC 2018

International Congress
Budapest 4-7 October

DEAR COLLEAGUES AND FRIENDS,

On behalf of the Hungarian Group of LIDC, I have the pleasure to invite you to the LIDC 2018 International Congress in Budapest, Hungary, from 4 to 7 October, 2018.

The Congress programme promises to be compelling. We plan to address current legal issues of interest for both IP and anti-trust specialists, with topics and speakers providing an interesting comparative law analysis.

Budapest is a very modern city, yet steeped in history, which should ideally be discovered at a gentle walking pace. The Congress will be held at the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, in the heart of the city. Budapest's architecture is a mixture of the traditional and the modern, giving our city its extra special flair, and we are happy that, as it did in 1936, 1993 and 2004, it will host the Congress again.

We look forward to welcoming you to Budapest.

José Antonio Faria Correa
President of LIDC

Zoltán Hegymegi-Barakonyi
President of the Hungarian
Group of LIDC

Gusztáv Bacher
Head of the Organizing Committee

REGISTRATION

To register, please download the Application Form and return it duly completed to lidc@blaguss.hu or by fax +36 1 317 8657. Participants will receive a confirmation of registration and an invoice from Congress Organiser via email. All congress-related registration fees must be paid in due time according to the invoice. In addition, joining instructions will be sent at the end of September 2018 by e-mail to assist with your visit to Budapest. Please make sure you provide your e-mail address when registering.

OPTIONAL TOUR

Sunday, 7 October 2018
between 09:30-14:00

An optional excursion to the Gödöllő Royal Palace with lunch will be arranged on Sunday.

The Palace is one of the largest palaces in the country and is a significant work of Hungarian Baroque architecture.

The golden age of the building began in 1867 when the Palace was presented as a coronation gift to Emperor Francis Joseph I and Queen Elizabeth (also known as Sisi) for use as a residence. Nowadays the building has been restored to its former glory. The Palace was the venue of high-level meetings during the Hungarian EU presidency in 2011.

Transportation by bus is provided from the Congress venue to Gödöllő, and from Gödöllő to the Liszt Ferenc International Airport and then to Budapest city centre. The excursion is optional and costs EUR 100/person

Minimum number of participants: 30 persons
