

Anticompetitive Practices in Labor Markets

The LIDC and LIDC Nex Gen will be holding a lunchtime webinar on Tuesday 09 December 2025 at 12:30 - 13:30 pm (CET) / 11:30 – 12:30 (UK).

During this webinar, our speakers will explore the interplay between employment law and competition law. From a comparative Europe/United States/United Kingdom perspective, they will analyze issues related to the exchange of sensitive information between employers, wage-fixing practices, as well as no-poach and non-compete clauses. Our speakers will present the latest positions of the authorities, the associated legal risks, and compliance best practices, to provide practical guidance for legal, HR, and compliance teams.

SPEAKERS

Quitterie d'ARCHE is a partner at BORREL d'ARCHE (Paris). Her practice focuses on French and European competition and distribution law. She assists French and international companies before regulatory authorities and courts, in cases covering cartel investigations, abuse of dominant position, and private damage claims related to anticompetitive practices.

Maud BOUKHRIS is a senior associate in the Antitrust and Competition practice at Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP (Paris). She advises French and international companies on merger control, anticompetitive practices, and litigation before French and European authorities and courts. She also has expertise in foreign investment control and foreign subsidies.

Anthony GIOE DE STEFANO is a partner at Squair (Paris). Anthony's practice focuses on French and European Competition law. He regularly assists French and international companies before French and European regulatory authorities and the relevant courts, on cases of merger control, anti-competitive practices (cartels, abuse of a dominant position), State aid and private damage claims.
